

CONNECTICUT COUNCIL FOR EDUCATION REFORM

Best Practices Forum

March 28, 2013
8:30 AM — 3:00 PM

Omni Hotel
New Haven, CT

Join Connecticut education leaders and national experts to learn more about strategic innovations that are having the greatest effect in closing achievement gaps while raising overall student performance.

Keynote Address: Dr. Alan Ingram

Dr. Ingram is the Deputy Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, where he oversees Accountability and Targeted Assistance, Planning and Research, Special Education Planning & Policy, Student Support, and Educator Quality. Formerly, Dr. Ingram served as Superintendent of Public Schools in Springfield Massachusetts, and has held various high level positions in public education agencies at state and federal levels.

Leadership Panel

Engage with a panel of Connecticut education leaders who will discuss implementation successes and challenges.

Talks on Targeted Interventions

Discuss interventions with experts and practitioners in these key areas:

- English Language Learners
- Extended Learning Time
- Early Learning
- Early Literacy

For more information, or to register, visit <http://ccerbestpractices.eventbrite.com>

Connecticut Council for
EDUCATION REFORM

In collaboration with the Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents, the Nellie Mae Education Foundation, and the New England Secondary School Consortium.