

Connecticut Council for Education Best Practices Forum

KEYNOTE ADDRESS: GEORGE COUROS

George Couros is the Division Principal of Innovative Teaching and Learning for Parkland School Division in Alberta, Canada. A leader in the area of innovation, he focuses on leadership development and doing what is best for kids. His mix of research, personal stories, and practical ways to implement new learning helps others to feel comfortable in taking risks in their own learning. Find out more about George at his site: georgecouros.ca.

@GCOUROS

PANEL: LESSONS LEARNED FROM SEED PILOT DISTRICTS

Gain insight from a panel of leaders from SEED pilot districts and the Neag School of Education on overcoming challenges in implementing the new evaluation and support program.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS: INNOVATIONS IN CT DISTRICTS

Learn about some of the innovative strategies happening in Connecticut districts. Our breakout sessions will focus on various innovations in districts and schools that are designed to raise achievement and narrow gaps.

Integrating Wraparound Services into Schools

Turning Data into Action

How New Haven Public Schools & Achievement First Built a Principal Residency Partnership

Exploring One School's Journey to Narrow Gaps in Achievement

To register or learn more about our breakout sessions, visit <http://ctedreform.org/events/2014best-practices-forum/>

March 6th, 2014 ♦ 8:30 AM to 3:30 PM ♦ Omni Hotel ♦ New Haven